BOOKFAIR HEADS UP!

Bookfair is coming soon, and there are a few changes that we want to alert you to:

- Bookfair will open on Tuesday this year. Dates and times are listed above.
- We will be selling bookmarks and pencils but not the usual assortment of smaller objects and toys. While this might be disappointing to some students, we hope to place the emphasis back on books and reading.
- ONLINE FAIR opens earlier than our school fair, offering a larger selection of books as well as opportunities for family and friends out of state to order and support our school. Books will be mailed directly to the purchaser's home or provided address. Online Fair will run Friday, November 22nd - December 6th.
- NEW this year: Parents may put money into an eWallet for their child to use at bookfair. This avoids the problems that can come with loose cash. You can load an eWallet with money starting Wednesday, November 13th - Friday, December 6th.
- www.scholastic.com/bf/arrowheadelementary is where you will find a link to the Online Fair as well as a link to the eWallet.
